Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 23 October 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1 and 3-9 is/are pending in the application.
- 4a) Of the above claim(s) _____ is/are withdrawn from consideration.

DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to applicant's amendment received on October 23rd, 2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1, 4-6, and 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Oliver (4,671,444).

Oliver discloses the same invention including a driver 22, a magazine accommodating connected staples, a guide surface 212, a pusher 228 that presses a leading end staple and the next staple to the guide surface (see col. 14 lines 28-42). The staples have an upper portion extending lengthwise having first and second portions extending perpendicularly from the upper portion. The pusher has a support surface 316 that contacts a lower surface of the center of the upper portion of the leading staple when the driver 22 moves down (see col. 13 line 62 - col. 14 line 2). A protrusion 318 has a surface 316 that slopes in a driving direction of the driver. When the driver 22 moves downward, the upper portion of the staple moves to the sloping surface 316 and the pusher retreats in a direction opposite to the guide surface (col. 14 lines 1-2). As seen in Figs. 13 and 14, the pusher 228 does not contact the guide surface 212 in the absence of staples.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 3 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Oliver (4,671,444) in view of Kufel (3,029,436).

Oliver discloses the same invention substantially as claimed except for having a pair of legs on the driver. Instead, Oliver has legs 232 on the pusher 228 and has a flat ended driver. However, Kufel teaches a driver 22 having a pair of legs 32 for engaging the staple legs. Kufel states in col. 3 lines 1-7 that forming the driver 22 and legs 32 as one piece is an economical type of construction. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to provide a pair of legs on Oliver's driver for the purpose of creating an economical type of construction for the stapler.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to the Kufel reference have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

8. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
